Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household care or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nervine. By its timely use, much nervousness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife would be in vain, if a woman had to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were not in good time. The Favorite Prescription has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless. Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended. A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, and the lungs, are the organs of the body, but in the nerve that control and guide and sustain them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys is a little. It is a waste of time and of money as you run back and forth or weak, if the urine is acid, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month. Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

PRINCE WILHELM OF SWEDEN.

[Written for the Gazette.]

Prince Wilhelm, of Sweden, Duke of Södermanland, our guest, who from all accounts a modest and unassuming gentleman is evidently enjoying himself. He visited first Jamestown where he was well entertained, and in a manner that gave no offence to good form or good taste, principally by Mr. Tucker, the president of the Jamestown Exposition, who by birth and breeding of course understood how to entertain another gentleman. Mr. Tucker also had the advantage of having the prince on the soil of beautiful woman and gallant men. Some social friction seems to have followed upon these functions, but that is usually the case under similar circumstances. There are always some persons who imagine that they have not received the recognition to which they are entitled. It appears that, at Newport, the prince was so pursued that he sought refuge at a party given by his own country people which goes to show that he is not without democratic proclivities, and why should he be, for he comes of a self-made family. The blood of the great Gustavus Adolphus and Charles the Twelfth runneth not in his veins. He is descended from Bernadotte. Who then was Bernadotte? He was a marshal of France who betrayed his benefactor, Napoleon Bonaparte, the greatest man and the greatest soldier that God ever permitted to live upon this earth.

Bernadotte, the son of a poor country lawyer, entered as a private in the ranks of the army of the revolution. Napoleon attracted by his bravery and military qualities, advanced him step by step until he finally became a marshal, and married a sister of Joseph Bonaparte's wife. He then began to show jealousy, and insubordination. At the bloody battle of Eylau, when Napoleon was opposed by a mighty Russian force, Bernadotte was stationed with his corps of 25,000 men ten miles distant, at Anversdatt to support Marshal Angereau who had about the same number of men and who was the ranking officer. The Russians largely outnumbered Angereau, and assailed him fiercely. Angereau begged and implored Bernadotte to come to his aid even offering to allow him to take supreme command, but Bernadotte steadily refused to advance. In spite of it, however, Angereau gained a brilliant victory. Napoleon fighting hard at Eylau didn't even know until the following day of Angereau's battle. When he learned of Bernadotte's conduct he was furious and would have had him court-martialed and shot had it not been for the intervention of Joseph.

Again at the battle of Wagram where the French gained a great victory over the Austrians, Bernadotte pursued the Austrians, and after the battle he had the impudence to issue a manifesto, claiming that all of the glory of the victory belonged to himself and his troops. This was too much for Napoleon, who issued a decree ordering Bernadotte to be gagged at all and that Bernadotte himself was not even under fire. Napoleon then dismissed him from the army, ordering him to return to Paris. Bernadotte then began to intrigue and scheme politically and succeeded in having himself elected as King of Sweden. Napoleon reluctantly consenting upon condition that Bernadotte would be his ally, Bernadotte promising faithfully to be steadfast and true.

How did he keep his promise? After the disastrous expedition to Russia and Moscow in 1812, Napoleon fighting on French soil the armies of all Europe, Bernadotte advancing at the head of a Swedish army assailed him in the rear and helped to bring about the events that culminated in the banishment of Napoleon to the Island of Elba.

Bernadotte made Sweden an excellent ruler. He was an able and brave soldier and his cause has been approved by historians—mainly English. But as Rochefoucauld truly remarks: "True love is rare and true friendship is rarer but the rarest of all qualities is gratitude," and Bernadotte, Marshal of France and King of Sweden, never showed that.

Eczema.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Rock on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its name. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Rock. FRIDAY EVENING, AUG. 30, 1907.

A MOVEMENT to amend the rate law so as to allow railroads to issue free passes to certain people is said to be on foot, with the approval of no less a personage than President Roosevelt himself. It is reported that the President recently declared that he did not believe the law should have gone as far as it did in the matter of limiting the issuance of free transportation. The President declared that the law should allow the roads to issue passes to bona-fide newspaper men, especially in return for advertising, and that an effort to amend the law in this regard would have his support. Concerning this matter the correspondent of the Richmond Times Dispatch writing from Washington says:

It is a significant fact that while a few editorial associations have adopted resolutions denouncing the anti-pass provision of the rate law, newspaper men as a rule have not protested. As a matter of fact, judging from expressions of Washington correspondents and daily newspaper men in Washington, the movement to secure amendment of the law will not receive their active support.

It is said that the Virginia republicans will make a fight for the legislature this fall, and to this end the State executive committee has been called to meet in Norfolk on September 4th. C. Bascom Slemmons, son of the late republican Congressman from Virginia, is the chairman, and the policy of the party will be dictated by Mr. Slemmons. His father is no longer a factor, as it is understood that he will retire from Congress at the end of his present term. Young Slemmons has decided that his party shall make nominations for the House and Senate in all the districts where there is a bare prospect of victory; but that there shall be no "lost motion" in sections that are safely democratic. The democrats need have no fear so long as the Slemmons are at the head of the republican party of the State but this is no reason for them not rolling up a large majority in next fall's election.

MR. HENRY O. WICKHAM, who has for years well and faithfully served his constituents in the Caroline and King William districts in the State Senate was yesterday defeated for a renomination in the democratic primary. The only reason assigned was that Mr. Wickham was counsel for a railroad company, which fact had never influenced him in his senatorial relations with his people or his State. This is a specimen of narrow-mindedness which was not at one time characteristic of Virginians.

It is more than probable that there will be a big debate next winter in Congress on the advisability of selling the Philippine Islands. And, says the Baltimore News, there are many patriotic Americans who would welcome the discussion. It might have added that there are many more who favor the giving away of these islands if they cannot be sold. They have already cost this country much more than they are worth.

GERMAN courts appear to take no chances in dealing with applications to presume the death of persons who have disappeared. The principal Vienna papers publish a long official advertisement from the court at Oberdorf, calling upon one Fidelis Rohr, born on April 24, 1870, to appear before the said court some time before March 12, 1908, otherwise he will be declared dead! As Herr Fidelis Rohr would now be 37 years old were he alive, it is hardly likely that the court will have the pleasure of seeing him.

A SOLE feature of the fifteenth national irrigation congress, which will be opened in Sacramento, Cal., on September 7, will be the singing of the "Irrigation Ode" by the Mormon Tabernacle choir. The choir, which is composed of two hundred trained voices, is rarely heard outside of the great Mormon tabernacles at Ogden and Salt Lake City. The singers will be taken to the congress by the Utah delegation, and their attendance will be an expression of the enthusiasm of the people of the State for irrigation movement. An expenditure of $10,000 is involved.

AN OLD lady who had been born and reared in the Episcopal church and whose sister had married an Episcopal clergyman died in this city on Thursday and was buried today. Not an Episcopal clergyman in a city of fifteen thousand population was at home to conduct the burial services—all being away on their summer vacation. But a Methodist brother came nobly to the fore.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is believed to have made an agreement with the "sandpaters" to prevent any tariff revision at the coming session of Congress. Still, Mr. Roosevelt has been publicly advocating tariff revision for some years past!

TIME brings many changes. Count Witte, until recently the most powerful man in Russia, has accepted the directorship of the Bank of Russia.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Aug. 30.—The text of President Roosevelt's telegraphic appeal to the presidents of the five Central American Republics, in the interest of peace and good will among them, was made public at the State Department today. It is stated that the message was prepared for consultation with President Diaz, and that it aims toward full concurrence with the efforts of the Mexican Executive to exert cordial and impartial influence in order to bring the Central American States together in friendly conference with a view to adjusting on a sound basis whatever differences may be found to exist among them. Replies have been received in most favorable terms, from the Presidents of Costa Rica, Nicaragua and Salvador, but have not yet been made public.

The information which the President says he has received indicating the influence of disturbance of the peace of Central America is understood to have been the announcement that Nicaragua was preparing to send an expedition against Salvador and that war might be expected in four days. The other members of the Central American Republics were the fear that his motives might be misconstrued that caused him to enlist the co-operation of the President of Mexico.

Notification today reached the Navy Department of the death at his late residence, 850 West End avenue, New York city, of Rear Admiral W. A. Windor, retired. The interment will take place at Arlington on Sunday or Monday. Admiral Windor was an engineer in the navy before his retirement. He was born in Virginia and was appointed to the service from Maryland. He was 67 years old at the time of his death.

The Department of Justice has been notified by its agents in Alaska of the conviction at Valdez of the Japanese, caught in small boats taking seal within Alaskan waters. The other members of the party, the two Japanese schooners Kaiwo and Nitto, who were not in the small boats but who were arrested were acquitted. Among the convicted was the captain of the Nitto. Acting Secretary of the Navy Newberry today had a conference with the officials of the Supervising Inspectors of Steamboats Service in reference to the enforcement of rules of navigation with special reference to the display of proper lights on tugs and their towboats.

Bids were opened today at the office of the Isthmian Canal Commission for twelve saddle-tank locomotives for use in the construction work on the canal. The Davenport Locomotive Works, of Davenport, Ia., were the lowest bidders at $86,996.

Death of Richard Mansfield.

New London, Conn., August 30.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, died at his summer home, Seven Oaks, on Ocean avenue, in the Pequot section of the city, at 6:30 this morning. The direct cause of death was disease of the liver, but there were other complications. Just prior to his death, Mr. Mansfield was in the state of coma from which he did not rally.

Richard Mansfield was born in Heliopolis, in 1857. He studied for the East Indian civil service, but soon afterwards came to this country, and opened a studio in Boston. It was his hope and intention to become an artist and to this end he studied art in England. His desire to become an actor however was so great that at length he gave up his artistic endeavors to go on the stage. He played small parts in comic operas in England. He returned to the United States and appeared at the Standard Theatre in New York as "Dromio" in Les Manteaux Noires. His ability soon brought him recognition and he appeared with distinction in repertories of wide range from Koko in the Mikado, Richard III, and Hamlet. He became the owner of his company. He married Beatrice Cameron, his leading lady. One of his greatest successes was his appearance as Cyrano de Bergerac, in 1899, when that play and his acting became the rage. Mansfield created many famous parts, notably Beau Brummel and the roles of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. The part of Baron Chevalier also was one of his famous creations. He gained much fame in Shylock, Henry V., Brutus, in Julius Caesar, and as Beauchamp. Mansfield wrote a book of non-sense poems from grown up children called "Blown Away." He wrote three plays—Monsieur, Ten Thousand a Year, and Don Juan. His home in New York, was at 636 Riverside Drive.

ALLEGED FRAUDULENT USE OF MAIL.

Upon a warrant sworn out by Post-office Inspector Smith, of Alexandria, Walter S. Buchanan, of Louisiana county, has been placed under arrest for the second time, charged with using the United States mails for fraudulent purposes. Buchanan is said to be a sample merchant artist, to the extent that he has been in the habit of working wholesale people all over the country with mail orders, and then selling the samples. Buchanan was crowded so hard some time ago by Louisiana merchants that he is said to have taken out a retail merchant's license, and under this he sold his samples. He was arrested on a similar charge some time ago, but for some reason his case has never been called. While out on bail Buchanan was again arrested, and is now in the Richmond jail awaiting his preliminary trial before United States Commissioner Joseph P. Brady.

FOUND DEAD ON SLEEPER.

The body of James Lawrence McIntire, of Washington, was found dead yesterday morning in a sleeper at Petersburg on a Norfolk and Western train bound for Norfolk. The remains were sent to Washington for burial. Mr. McIntire was 39 years old, formerly lived in Petersburg and was a son of the late Col. Joseph P. McIntire, purchasing agent of the Southern Railway. He was a traveling salesman. Surviving him in Washington are a widow and two small children. He was a brother of Mr. George H. Evans of this city. Coroner Knight decided that death was due to heart disease from which McIntire had suffered for several years.

Rear Admiral William August Windor, U. S. N., retired, died suddenly at his home in New York today of acute indigestion. Rear Admiral Windor was born in Virginia in 1842.

News of the Day.

H. Byington, of Norfolk, has resigned his post as United States Consul at Naples, Italy.

It is said that it will require over 100,000 tons of coal to take the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific coast.

Thomas Alva Edison is ill at Akron, Ohio. It is said Mr. Edison is suffering a nervous collapse and that he was compelled to seek seclusion.

Patrick Fitzpatrick, chief of the fire department of West Chester, Pa., was found with both legs cut off, on the trolley line tracks near West Moorestown today and died in Cooper Hospital at Camden.

Nine cases of bubonic plague have been discovered in San Francisco up to date, and seven deaths have occurred. The federal authorities have sent a marine surgeon there.

Peter Kelley, superintendent of the Cumberland division of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, was found dead on a company boat four miles east of Cumberland yesterday. Mr. Kelley was known by nearly every man, woman and child along the Chesapeake and Ohio canal between Cumberland and Georgetown.

COLLAPSE OF A BRIDGE.

The immense new $10,000,000 steel bridge, which was in course of construction across the St. Lawrence river at Louis, two miles above the city of Quebec, collapsed last night after a heavy rain, carrying down nearly 175 workmen, mostly steelworkers and riveters. It is estimated that the loss of life is at least 60, and may exceed that number by 20.

The bridge was about a mile and a half in length, and half of it, from the south shore to midstream, crumpled up and dropped into the water. Ninety men were at work on this section of the structure, and the whistle had just blown at 5:30 for the men to quit work for the day, when there came a grinding sound from the bridge midstream. A small boat carrying a group of men was turned to what had happened and an instant later the cry went up "The bridge is falling."

The men made a rush shoreward, but the distance was too great for them to escape. The fallen section of the bridge dragged others after it, the snapping girders and cables booming like a crash of artillery. Terror lent fleetness to the feet of the frightened workmen as they sped shoreward, but only a few of them reached safety before the last piece of iron work on the south shore was dragged into the river.

The steamer Glenmont had just cleared the bridge when the first section fell. The water thrown up by the debris came clear over the bridge of the steamer.

The captain at once lowered boats. The small boats plied backward and forward over the sunken wreckage for half an hour, but there was no sign of life.

The twisted iron and steel had its victims in a terrible death grip. A few floating timbers and the broken strands of the bridge toward the north shore were the only signs that anything unusual had happened. There was not a ripple on the smooth surface of the St. Lawrence as it swept along toward the Gulf.

The collapse is thought to be due to the overloading of the superstructure with bridge materials, and it occurred at an hour when the workmen were all in their places, preliminary to finishing the work for the day.

When the fall of the giant structure came the big steel structural work which it was being built prevented many of the workmen from drowning in the St. Lawrence. The men who were not stunned by the terrible tumble from the superstructure seized the big steel girders which were carried to the river bottom, and were thus saved from drowning.

The Quebec bridge was begun about seven years ago and it was to be finished in 1909.

CHINA PROTESTS.

A dispatch from Peking says China made a protest on August 19 to France and Japan against the covenant of their recent agreement providing for interference in the vast regions of the sovereign Chinese domain. The protest has resulted in a remarkable suppression by the authorities of public matters. It is claimed that China has been browbeaten from her rights, owing to the cowardice of the present Chinese government, the covering position of the throne, and its overloading by Japan.

The protest which the Wei-Wu-Pu, or Board of Foreign Affairs, for the purpose of not giving offense modified to a mild character, is to the effect that the agreement of China's allied opponents is "not to be considered as right." The protest has aroused the indignation of the Japanese, who have ignored it, leaving the French to drop it.

While China's resentment at the patronage of Japan, which country is assuming the position of her protector, is increasing, the government is yet too weak and alarmed to combine the assistance of the Empress with official action, preferring the dangerous policy of secrecy.

The attitude of foreigners at Peking has reached a stage of pronounced antagonism to the Japanese, especially among those belonging to the nations which are the allies of Japan. This antagonism has been largely provoked by Japan's constant success both in Korea and Manchuria.

A new movement headed by Chang Chin Lung has been started among the Chinese to promote native enterprises in Fukien, for the purpose of offsetting the efforts of the Japanese to obtain a foothold in the province.

The September American Magazine has been received from its publishers in New York. Its most notable article describes "The Rev. Billy Sunday and his war on the devil." The story is told of Wm. J. Burns, the greatest living detective. Eugene Wood writes about "The new baby" and another "Adventure in Contention" is contributed. "Sleep and its Counterparts" and "The rise in the cost of living" are of interest. The fiction of this issue is above the average and "The Interpreter" talks about Japan and war.

Believing that Gov. Swanson should reimburse them for use of the steamer Commodore Maury, which has been taken in demand by the State's Chief Executive during the social functions at the exposition, members of the State Board of Fisheries have asked the Governor for a portion of his contingent fund wherewith to increase the depleted funds of the board.

Rev. E. S. Hinks, dean of St. Michael's Episcopal Cathedral, at Boise, Idaho, and former rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, at Leesburg, is visiting relatives and friends there. During the trial of Haywood for complicity in the murder of former Gov. Stansberg, of Idaho, Dean Hinks was the principal adviser of Harry Orchard, the principal witness for the prosecution and the self-confessed perpetrator of the crime.

The first and second days of the Central Agricultural Fair Association at Onancock passed quietly, but yesterday a gang of negroes from Norfolk went over to raise a row. One woman from that city was shot by a man from Nantuxadox. She has identified the man who shot her. Seven negro men are now under arrest. Sergeant King, who was in charge of the guard at the fair grounds, called for extra men after the row and 40 soldiers went to his aid. There were 5,000 negroes present.

A fire Wednesday night burned several stables located in the center of the town of Waterloo, Loudoun county, and destroyed surrounding buildings, and threatened the business and residence sections of the place. It was finally subdued, after obtaining assistance from Leesburg and other towns. It started in a stable owned by the late John Edgar Beane, and close to the general stores of F. J. Beane and L. P. Smith. Its origin is unknown, but is believed to have been of incendiary nature. During the excitement several shops and stores were broken into and robbed. The loss is about $2,000, partially covered by insurance.

Senator Henry T. Wickham, for twenty years one of the most prominent members of the State legislature, and president pro tempore of that body, was defeated for re-election in the thirty-second senatorial district yesterday by Dr. C. W. Gravatt. Senator Wickham is general counsel for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, and is one of the receivers of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, of Richmond. The railroad issue, raised against him in an agricultural community, was largely responsible for Mr. Wickham's defeat.

Dr. Gravatt, the successful candidate, is retired naval officer and there is some doubt as to his eligibility to serve in the legislature.

Dr. William Beverly Mason, of Washington, and Miss Agnes Gray Kennedy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Dandridge Kennedy of "Castille," were married yesterday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. The bride wore a gown of white satin. The groom wore a suit of white satin, trimmed with rare old family lace. She carried a large bunch of American beauty roses. The church was decorated with white hydrangeas. After the marriage Dr. and Mrs. Mason received congratulations of their friends at a small reception at "Castille," the home of the bride.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Nearly 5,000 persons at the Barnstable county, Mass., fair saw "Professor" Maloney, a balloonist, drop 3,000 feet to earth, strike on the top of a cedar fence post and escape probably with his life. Maloney made his ascent late yesterday afternoon, and as the visitors at the fair grounds gazed upward they saw that his attempts to cut his parachute were fruitless. A sharp easterly wind blew the rope which connects with the balloon and there was a mass of cords higher up and out of reach of the balloonist.

For fully two miles Maloney floated along. The gas was rapidly leaking from the big bag above him, and he prepared for the long drop. Maloney and the balloon came earthward rapidly. As he neared the earth, the canvas fell about the body of the aeronaut and prevented him from seeing where he was falling.

He struck in a half standing position on the top of a big cedar post used by a farmer to mark off his field. His back was terribly torn and his left arm badly injured.

A long line of automobiles, headed by one carrying Governor Curtis Guild, was a witness at the fair, rushed to the spot where Maloney had fallen. The man was picked up in a semi-conscious condition, and was hurried to his hotel in Barnstable Center. Physicians who attended Maloney say that he is not internally injured and will recover.

Thirty-one persons were injured yesterday when passenger train No. 41, on the Southern Railway, collided with an engine on the westbound main line in Asheville, N. C. The injured received cuts, bruises or sprains, but none was fatally hurt.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Another Strike Anticipated.

New York, Aug. 30.—Representatives of the American Steamship Company, on their way to Europe, are expected to discuss the demands they expect to be made on them within the next few hours by the marine engineers. The engineers want a new scale of wages adopted by the Atlantic coast conference of the marine engineers' beneficial association held in Philadelphia July 19, to take effect October 1. The scale has been approved by the National President and advisory board of the association, and the engineers say that unless the owners comply with their demands, there will be a steamship strike, as soon as the old agreement expires. The engineers say that skilled labor in every line but their own has been granted many wage advances within the past few years, and that they propose to profit by the increase. They ask at present about ten per cent. On the other hand, the men are underpaid and that their hours are unreasonably long.

Situation in Morocco.

Tangier, Aug. 30.—Fifteen thousand Moors are gathering for a fresh attack on Casablanca, according to a message received here today. The attack promises to be the most serious the defenders have had yet to meet as the Moors are partly organized. The army now ready for the attack comprises three brigades. Details of Wednesday's battle state that 12,000 tribesmen joined in the attack. They charged bravely within close rifle range before being repulsed. Time and again they returned to the charge, the fighting continuing for three hours.

The Moors lost 500 killed and wounded. Three French soldiers were killed and seven wounded. Reports today from southern Morocco are more reassuring, as indicating that the newly proclaimed Sultan, Moulay Hafid, may be able to restrain his followers and not be forced into a war against foreigners. Moulay's attitude towards Europe is believed to be friendly, as his proclamations have indicated.

World Congress of Irishmen.

Dublin, Aug. 30.—A world congress of Irishmen, representatives coming from every country on earth, will be one of the results of the present meeting of the National Council of the Sinn Fein, now meeting here. This was decided upon today through the adoption of a resolution calling such a conference to discuss the principles of the Sinn Fein. It is the purpose to start a concerted world-wide movement among Irishmen for the advancement of their native land and eventually to secure home rule.

The real purpose of the present conference, it develops, is to devise means to raise money for the Sinn Fein campaign. In the immediate future they will work to secure the co-operation of every publicly elected Irish body in support of its plan to encourage Irish industries and advance the proposed boycott of all English goods. It was decided to appoint committees to work for election contests in every district where the Sinn Fein will put up candidates against the nationalists, the party of John Redmond, which it aims to overthrow.

President Preparing Speeches.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 30.—President Roosevelt is preparing the six speeches he will deliver on his trip to the South during the latter part of September and early October. Five of the speaking points which have been definitely determined, upon are Canton, Ohio; Keokuk, Iowa; St. Louis, Cairo; and Memphis. The sixth speech will probably be delivered at either Knoxville or Chattanooga.

The President today received Senators McHenry and Foster of Louisiana, who are seeking a pardon for Oad Bradford, recently sentenced to two years' imprisonment and a heavy fine for a land fraud. Bradford is seventy years old, and the Senators declare he will die in prison if forced to serve his term. Secretary Garfield, of the Interior Department, was summoned to Oyster Bay yesterday presumably to represent the government in the hearing before the President.

Athletics.

Jamestown Exposition, Va., Aug. 30.—As the time approaches for the holding of the national athletic championship contests at the Exposition grounds September 6 and 7, it is evident that the meet is to be a test of might between the flower of manhood in the East and in West, with the Canadian athletes as dark horses, likely to romp away with some of the prizes. Eastern men are claiming that there will be nothing but the two New York clubs, the Irish-American Athletic Club, and the New York Athletic Club, in the money, but the Western contingent is adding its faith in the Olympic Club, of California, the Multnomah Athletic Club, of Oregon, and the athletes from the University of Oregon. The Montreal Athletic Club is sending down some promising contestants and so are Chicago and other sections.

Disappearance of Millionaire.

New York, Aug. 30.—Pinkerton detectives are working on the theory that Seward Redelbach, Cincinnati millionaire, who disappeared here Monday, was murdered and robbed. He had $4,000 in his pocket when he walked out of the Equitable Building. He met a man in the lobby of the building, who approached him as an old friend and invited him to enter a carriage, which he did. He had started for an express office to buy express orders to send abroad. Mrs. Redelbach has been unable to find any trace of him. He left the hotel to visit his brother, Alfred, who has offices in the Equitable Building.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 30.—There was a good deal of hesitation about the trading in stocks in the early part of the first hour. Morning newspaper stories in relation to the Interborough-Metropolitan arrangements curtailed operations, and anticipation of the three days holiday reduced the number of brokers on the floor. Brooklyn Rapid Transit was the most prominent feature of the hour's trading, moving up from 43 1/2 to 45. Where there were any business worth noting advances were made and the tone of the market at the end of the hour was strong.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50 cents. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Mr. Morgan and the Street Railway.

New York, Aug. 30.—Wall Street displays a keen interest in rumors that J. P. Morgan has bought $20,000,000 bonds, at fifty cents on the dollar, and will immediately undertake to reorganize the New York City street railway. The bonds were issued in exchange for Interborough stock at the rate of two for one and despite the confused condition of local traction affairs it is believed the investment will prove immensely profitable. The "street" has it that Morgan had no intention of returning so soon from abroad until he learned of the impending break between the Ryan and Belmont interests. Now it is rumored that Ryan will hurry home, too, to oppose interference with his deep laid plans for a traction trust reorganization on his own lines.

It is unofficially reported that Morgan will follow the same plan adopted in reorganizing the Chicago Street Railway. He will organize a new company which will issue stock in exchange for that of the various subsidiary companies, mostly running cars. This will eliminate the holding companies through which the traction stock was watered to an extent which is said to have shocked even Morgan himself. If the street is correct in its belief that Morgan was about to take the traction situation in hand and the rumors seem to rest on more than usually reliable authority—speculators believe in investments in traction stock at the present low levels are likely to yield good returns and lively trading in this class of securities is expected for some time to come.

The Quebec Horror.

Quebec, Aug. 30.—Steps to begin a criminal investigation into last night's terrible disaster when perhaps eighty men lost their lives in the collapse of the gigantic bridge five miles from here, have already been taken by the authorities, despite the fact that the city and the communities near the scene of the accident are still prostrate. Every effort will be made to fix the blame for the disaster. If it is discovered any criminal culpability exists criminal prosecutions will follow.

Latest estimates made today place the dead at eighty four, but those giving out the figures, admit their estimate may be too small. Several officers of the Phoenix Bridge Coal Company lost their lives in the disaster.

In connection with their investigation the authorities are looking into a story that on Wednesday, several of the workmen alarmed by the noise of creaking cables and cracking rivets they had heard, told the superintendent the bridge was unsafe and they would not work longer on it. They were reassured, however, according to the report, and went back to work yesterday.

A New Attorney General.

New York, Aug. 30.—A Financial News bureau today published a report that Frank B. Kellogg, counsel for the Interstate Commerce Commission, would succeed C. J. Bonaparte as Attorney General soon.

Mr. Kellogg, who is here preparing for the government suit against the Standard Oil Company, said there was absolutely no foundation for the report. For several years Kellogg was chief counsel in the northwest for the Northern Pacific Railway Company and also for the Chicago Great Western. He has served as counsel for the Standard Oil Company and the Steel Corporation. He conducted the investigation into the Harriman lines for the Interstate Commerce Commission, and will be in charge of the investigation of the Rockefeller concern which will begin here next week. The Financial News says: "Because of the connection he has had with corporations and corporate managers and because of the ability and fair-mindedness displayed in the Harriman investigation it is understood that his appointment as Attorney General, with unusual favor."

Newspaper Building Destroyed.

Louisville Ky., Aug. 30. Fire that started in the Courier Journal Office early today practically destroyed the structure, a five-story building. The blaze started at the top of the elevator shaft, and it is supposed to have been caused by defective insulation of an electric wire. The blaze was confined to the one building, which is occupied also by the Louisville Times. The editorial and editorial forces of the Courier-Journal stuck to the building in the hope that the blaze would be subdued and that they could issue paper. They were caught napping, with fire at all exits and had to be taken out on the ladders. The linotype machines and presses are located in a reinforced section of the building and the damage to them will be comparatively light. The remaining contents of the buildings are a total loss. The damage on building and contents is estimated at $650,000.

Eight People Killed.

Charleston, Ill., Aug. 30.—Six men and two women were killed, and thirty to forty were seriously injured, in a disastrous wreck on the Mattoon Interurban Railroad, one mile west of this city, at noon today. The wreck occurred on a sharp curve and the motor car with a trailer collided head-on with an express car both going 30 miles an hour. The car was loaded with passengers bound for the county fair at Mattoon. Fifteen fatalities are expected from the injured.

Alleged Foul Blow.

San Francisco, Aug. 30.—The admiral of Mike Schreck, the Chicago fighter who quit in the seventh round of his fight with Al Kaufman, the California giant, last night, are today claiming that the blow "which made their choice give up was a deliberate foul and that the fight should have been awarded to their man. With his victory last night, Kaufman looms up as a new aspirant for the heavy weight championship, and steps are already begun to match him with Tommy Burns, the recognized champion, owing to Jeffries' refusal to defend the title.

Paris, Aug. 30.—Mischievous children are believed to be responsible for the damaging of another picture in the Louvre galleries, a valuable landscape painting by Berghem. The discovery of the vandalism was made today.

JUMPED FROM STEAMER.

Albert Horn, 58 years old, of Baltimore, attempted to commit suicide Wednesday afternoon by jumping from the steamer Calvert, of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company, into the Potomac river. He was rescued by members of the crew of the steamer, taken to Baltimore and turned over to the police authorities. The steamer was on her way to Baltimore, having left Alexandria Tuesday evening, and when she stopped at Lodge Landing, near the mouth of the Potomac river, Horn came aboard. He told one of the deckhands that he had been disappointed about getting a position at one of the canning factories at the wharf and that he intended to kill himself.

Shortly afterward Horn was seen to climb on the rail of the boat and jump off before any one could reach him. First Officer Harrington was near by and he ordered one of the lifeboats lowered. He and two deckhands jumped into the boat and in a few minutes they were near his side, and one of the men grabbed him just as he was going down the third time.

SUSPECTED OF LUNACY.

Chief Goods on Wednesday night arrested Mat. Williams on the charge of stealing certain articles from J. N. Shepp, who conducts a saloon on north Fairfax street. Shepp purchased the saloon and fixtures recently, and Williams, who had been staying at the place, seemed to have been one of the fixtures. On Tuesday, it is alleged, the accused went to a room and removed some wearing apparel and a diamond pin belonging to the proprietor. When brought before the Police Court yesterday morning about all that could be gotten out of him was an acknowledgment in part of the offense against him and that he was a "rundum" and could not tell where he placed the stolen articles. It being apparent that he was not a sane man, a more suitable candidate for a sanitarium than a jail, it was determined to withhold judgment in his case for a few days.

DEATH OF LEWIS L. O'NEAL.

Judge Lewis L. O'Neal, of the Washington Police Court, died suddenly of a stroke of apoplexy at 7:15 o'clock last evening, at his home in that city. He was 63 years old. His death was a shock to his relatives and friends, as he presided yesterday in Police Court, where he was acting as judge of the District branch during the absence of Judge Kimball from the city. Judge O'Neal was a native of Maryland, but came to this city with his father, the late L. O. O'Neal, during the civil war. He married a daughter of the late Jackson Mitchell, and continued to reside in this city up to about 35 years ago. He was at one time a constable in this city. During the civil war he was an ensign in the Union army, and served on the new Ironsides. He was present at the battle of Fort Sumter. Judge O'Neal was an active member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Washington. He was a member of the B. B. French Lodge, No. 15, F. A. M.; Columbia Chapter, No. 1, Royal Arch, and Almas Temple, Mystic Shrine. He leaves a widow and several children.

ACCIDENTS.

Robert Grady, colored, had one of his legs broken this morning while on a sloop owned by him. The accident was caused by the mainmast gybing suddenly, the bomb of which struck Grady. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment.

Hoffman, of Cumberland, with whom he had made his home for the past five months. THE MT. VERNON DEPOT.

The new station at the Mount Vernon terminus of the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon road, is about completed, and is a handsome and substantial structure of brick and stone built by Mr. J. D. Knight of this city. The surrounding ground which has been in a state of upheaval for some time, is being leveled and beautified, and for the first time the approach to Mt. Vernon is attractive and pleasing to the gaze of the tourists, who at this time are visiting the tomb of "the greatest American" in unusual numbers.

EXCURSION LAST NIGHT.

The excursion given by Alexandria Lodge of Elks to Marshall Hall yesterday was one of the most enjoyable that ever left this city. The steamer Charles Macalester made three trips—one in the morning, another in the afternoon and the last early in the night. The steamer on each trip, after touching at Marshall Hall, proceeded as far down the river as Indian Head, for the benefit of those who desired to extend the steamboat ride. Many Washington Elks with their families were among the excursionists and all are profuse in expressions of the enjoyment of the occasion. The excursion was complimentary.

RELATIVES STILL UNKNOWN.

Mr. Percy E. Cliff, of the electric railway, has received a copy of the Mountain Home, published at Tallahassee, Fla., in which an item concerning the late J. W. Turner appears. The deceased, it will be remembered, was killed by falling from a portable tower at Spring Park recently, and his remains were kept several days awaiting orders from his relatives. They were finally placed in the vault in St. Mary's cemetery. The Mountain Home has been unable to locate Turner's relatives.

BADLY BURNED.

A serious explosion occurred at the home of Mrs. Charles Kelley, at the corner of Duke and Patrick streets, at 1:30 o'clock this evening, resulting in the painful burning of Mrs. Kelley and her eleven-year-old adopted daughter, Bessie Bolton. It appears that the child attempted to fill the tank of a lighted gas-line stove in the kitchen of the house when the explosion occurred, scattering the burning oil all over the child and also over Mrs. Kelley. The little one, in her fright, ran from the house and proceeded some distance down the street with her clothing on fire, when she was seen by some of the neighbors, who seized her and stripped her of her burning apparel. She was taken home and Dr. Delaney was summoned who had her conveyed to the Alexandria Hospital. Mrs. Kelley was attended by Dr. Klipstein. Her hands, arms and face are badly burned and she is suffering much pain, but her injuries are not serious. At the hospital it was ascertained that the child had been so badly burned about her face, arms and body that she can hardly breathe. Every thing is being done to alleviate the sufferings of the little one, but her condition is regarded as very serious.

On Monday, Labor Day, the Alexandria team will play a double-header with the Belmont Athletic Club, of Baltimore; first game at 2:30. Kraft and Wilkerson will be the battery.

SHANGHAIED.

John H. Underwood, a son of the gatekeeper at the Washington-Alexandria ferry wharf, was shanghaied aboard an English tramp steamer at Baltimore some weeks ago. That is what the young man, who is now in Rotterdam, writes to explain his disappearance, which had alarmed his family and friends. Despite the shanghaied experience young Underwood says he is quite contented with his berth and it is supposed he will return to this country on the same steamer.

SENT TO JAIL.

Richard Pines, colored, who was arrested in Baltimore recently charged with inducing a little son of William Roberts, of this city, to take money belonging to his father and turn it over to him, was brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning and committed to jail for six months.
